

YFM MENTOR

Strengthening Youth and Family Ministries to “FUN”ction, Educate and Serve

Fee Structure 2010

Consultant and/or Mentoring Fees are based upon a number of variables, such as:

- Adult congregation size
- Youth attendance
- Estimated number of hours and final length of written report
- Estimated number of hours mentoring on site/in person with the director
- Estimated number of hours in phone consultation with the director
- Deposit is required to confirm the selected dates
- Additional Financial Responsibilities as listed below
- NOTE: Separate fees apply for additional services such as trainings or speaking

Training Fees are as follows:

- Minimum of $350.00 (this covers up to 10 people)
- Additional $35.00 per person beyond the 10th participant
- Training session of 4 to 6 hours
- Training day supplies such as snacks, beverages, nametags, pens, recording, and copier access are supplied by the church
- Deposit is required to confirm the selected dates
- Additional Financial Responsibilities as listed below
- NOTE: Trainings will not be facilitated the same weekend of the consultation

Financial Responsibilities of the church for Consulting, Mentoring or Training include:

- Consultant travel to the church location
- Consultant meal expenses during visitation
- Consultant lodging during visitation (Preference is to stay in the home of the Minister, Director, or other congregant with the spiritual gift of hospitality)
- Any out of pocket expenses for incidental supplies related to the consulting, mentoring or training will be paid upon receipts being presented

For an exact quote for “yfm mentor” to visit your church, review your program and mentor your director, please contact Joanne Burns.

Rev. Joanne Burns, CSE, LUT

333 Hillandale Ave. Belen, NM 87002 512 / 635-0115

email: yfmmentor@gmail.com

www.yfmmentor.com